Today we finally get to hold worship services in our sanctuary again. Although only a limited group of our members can be here today, it is good to have a congregation in church again. But we also welcome all those who are tuning in on Facebook Live to our worship service online as part of our congregation this morning. Wherever you are, we hope that this worship service today is a blessing for you. Welcome!

Many thanks to Pam Myers and Lesley Oddi for planting the flowers in the planters outside the church. Thanks also to Pastor Oddi for the gorgeous hanging bouquet outside the door of the church that leads to the office. They are all so beautiful and remind of God's amazing blessing of creation!

There are still a few paper copies of our church newsletter, The Voice, in the narthex. Pick up your copy today or go to our website and read it online.

May 17 worship – Our sign-up system for reserving a pew for worship here at Hope went pretty well. We will send out another invitation to worship next week and we would ask you respond to the church email (not to Pastor Oddi's personal e-mail). Or you can call the church office and let us know you want to attend.

The LWML is serving the Lord with Gladness in spite of the pandemic and you can help them. They are collecting items for health kits. So, if you are now out and about as our sheltering rules are being relaxed, pick up the following items and drop them off at the church. There is a collection box right inside the door that leads to the church office for collecting these items.

Here's what is needed:

1. One light-weight bath-size towel (20" x 40" up to 52" x 27") dark colors are recommended.
2. Two or three bath size bars of soap-equaling 8 to 9 oz, any brand, in original wrapping. Please no mini or hotel size bars.
3. One adult-size toothbrush in its original packaging. Please no battery powered etc.
4. One sturdy comb (no picks or fine-toothed combs)
5. One metal nail clippers (attached file optional)

1 Peter 2:9 – "But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for his own possession, that you may proclaim the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light." God has called us to be His own. He has chosen us out of love, out of mercy, out of sheer, divine joy. The Apostle says that God has done this that we may share in His glory and joy, that we may "proclaim the excellencies of Him" who has made us His own. And truly, this is our delight! His joy brings joy in our hearts as well.
