A New Old Way to Pray - An ancient Jewish form of prayer, still in use today, involves sprinkling one’s day with short prayers of gratitude to God. The prayer typically begins: “Blessed are you, O Lord our God, king of the universe, who ...” and concludes with a phrase that fits the specific situation. Such a prayer works well in good circumstances and bad. For example:

- “Blessed are you, O Lord our God, king of the universe, who has provided clean water for my shower this morning.”
- “Blessed are you, O Lord ... who brings friends to support me in my grief.”
- “Blessed are you, O Lord ... who has blessed me with a keen mind; please help me focus while I take this test.
- “Blessed are you, O Lord ... who holds my children in unconditional love.”

Try using this form of prayer liberally as a way to “pray without ceasing” (1 Thessalonians 5:17) and to weave your faith throughout your day.

Welcome to worship and a very Happy Father's Day to our fathers, grandfathers and father figures. How nice to gather together both in our sanctuary and online to worship our loving Father, who gives us all we need. Blessings on your worship this today!

A very good deal! A king size bed and mattress has been donated to the LWML and they are offering it for sale. It is a "Sleep Number" bed with dual adjustability for soft/firm, and is in excellent condition. They would like $200 (retails around $4,500), and the money will go to missions. If you are interested, please call Pam at 660-582-4078 and she will make arrangements to show it to you.

LWML Members – Don't forget we will be meeting on June 30 here at the church to discuss the rummage sale as well as catch up on any other business. We will meet in the lower level of the church so we can social distance.

Hymn for a Summer Day - Maltbie Davenport Babcock, a minister in upstate New York at the turn of the 20th century, often walked near Niagara Falls to enjoy the view of Lake Ontario and the surrounding scenery. He'd tell his wife he was "going to see the Father's world."

After Babcock's death in 1901, his wife, Katherine, published a book of his writings, including the 16-verse poem "My Father's World." Franklin Sheppard set it to music in 1915, using two verses of text for each hymn stanza.

This is my Father's world,
and to my listening ears
all nature sings, and round me rings
the music of the spheres.
This is my Father's world:
I rest me in the thought
of rocks and trees, of skies and seas;
his hand the wonders wrought.

This is my Father's world,
the birds their carols raise,
the morning light, the lily white,
declare their maker's praise.
This is my Father's world:
he shines in all that's fair;
in the rustling grass I hear him pass;
he speaks to me everywhere.

Rom. 6:13 – "Present yourselves to God as those who have been brought from death to life, and your members to God as instruments for righteousness." Everything we have – even our own existence, our very selves – is a gift from God to be used for His purposes. God has called you to be His own and has given you tasks to perform in home, church, and society. How will you serve Him today?
