So Good

At the communion rail, a man held out his hand to receive the bread. His curious toddler by his side loudly asked, “Is it good, Daddy?” He smiled and nodded yes.

Indeed, communion is a good gift from Jesus, who wants us to remember his sacrifice for us. As you approach God’s altar today and receive communion, remember to “taste and see that the LORD is good!” (Psalm 34:8).

Welcome to worship on this Trinity Sunday. We often celebrate Trinity Sunday at Lake Mozingo, as it usually coincides with our Vacation

Bible School. This year, however, we celebrate the Trinity at Hope, and have an opportunity to see our beautiful Trinity Sunday banners. We praise God – Father, Son, and Holy Spirit – today and every day!

We have a few more slots filled on our flower watering schedule, but we need a lot more volunteers if we hope to keep our outside flowers looking beautiful all summer. If you are worshipping at Hope, please take a minute to volunteer on the sign-up sheet in the back of the church. Or you can call the church office and volunteer. Please help us out this summer!

The Finest Hymn - Reginald Heber (1783-1826), a vicar and hymn-writer in England, was the first person to compile a hymnal based around the church calendar. He composed the beloved hymn “Holy, Holy, Holy” specifically for Trinity Sunday, with lyrics based on Revelation 4:8-11.

The joyful song celebrates the eternal, omnipotent Triune God. Throughout the verses, Heber used units of three to symbolize the Trinity (God is “perfect in power, in love and purity”; God is worshiped by saints, cherubim and seraphim; and he’s praised “in earth and sky and sea”).

Heber, who witnessed much idol worship while serving as Bishop of Calcutta, often reaffirmed God’s holiness in his hymns. British poet laureate Alfred Lord Tennyson so admired the uplifting language in “Holy, Holy, Holy” that he proclaimed it the finest hymn ever written.

Matt. 28:19-20 – “Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you.” Behold the threefold Name of God: Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. This is the Name we are baptized into. We have been made a part of God’s family. And so we are now called to live lives that are in harmony with our new family. We are to be godly and live in God’s image. As God is loving, kind, and generous, so are we called to be.
